

A Love that Transforms

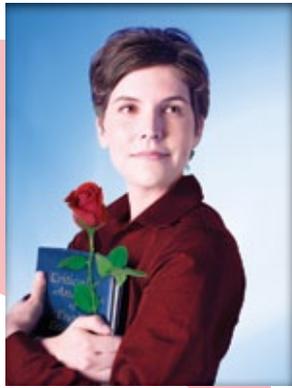

Amazing Facts
Study Guide

Being

in love changes everything.

For instance, a young lady was reading a large book for her university's English literature course. She found the whole thing very boring and could barely stay focused when reading it. But then she met a striking young professor on campus, and they quickly fell in love. Soon after, she realized her beloved was the author of the book she had struggled with. That night she stayed up and devoured the entire book, exclaiming, "This is the best book I have ever read!"

What changed her perspective? Love did. Likewise, many today find Scripture boring, oppressive, and unappealing. But that all changes when you fall in love with the author. See how in this heart-warming Study Guide!

1. Who is the author of Scripture?

"The prophets have inquired and searched carefully . . . searching what, or what manner of time, the Spirit of Christ who was in them was indicating when He testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ and the glories that would follow" (1 Peter 1:10, 11).

Answer: The God of the Bible (even the Old Testament) is virtually always Jesus Christ. Jesus created the world (John 1:1-3, 14; Colossians 1:13-17), wrote the Ten Commandments (Nehemiah 9:6, 13), was the God of the Israelites (1 Corinthians 10:1-4), and guided the writings of the prophets (1 Peter 1:10, 11). So, Jesus Christ is the author of Scripture.

Jesus is the author of Scripture.

2. What is Jesus' attitude toward the people of earth?

"For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life" (John 3:16).

Answer: Jesus loves us all with an indescribable, unfailing love that passes understanding.

Jesus loves the people of earth with an everlasting love.

Scripture taken from the New King James Version®. Copyright © 1982 by Thomas Nelson, Inc. Used by permission. All rights reserved.

3. Why should we love Jesus?

"We love Him because He first loved us" (1 John 4:19).
"While we were still sinners, Christ died for us" (Romans 5:8).

Answer: We should love Him because He loved us enough to die for us—while we were yet His enemies.

4. In what respects are a successful marriage and the Christian life similar?

"And whatever we ask we receive from Him, because we keep His commandments and do those things that are pleasing in His sight" (1 John 3:22).

Answer: In a good marriage certain things are imperative, such as faithfulness to one's spouse. Other things may not seem major, but if they please a spouse they are necessary. If they displease, they should be discontinued. So it is with the Christian life. The commands of Jesus are imperative. But in Scripture Jesus has also outlined for us principles of conduct that please Him. As in a good marriage, a Christian finds it sheer joy to do the things that make Jesus, the One he loves, happy. He also avoids things that displease Him.

Jesus died for us all, even though none of us deserved it.

Doing the things that please Jesus brings a person great joy and abundant living.

5. What does Jesus say are the results of doing the things that please Him?

"If you keep My commandments, you will abide in My love. . . . These things I have spoken to you, that My joy may remain in you, and that your joy may be full" (John 15:10, 11).

Answer: The devil claims that to follow Christian principles is drab, dull, demeaning, and legalistic. But Jesus says it brings fullness of joy (John 15:10, 11) and a more abundant life (John 10:10). Believing the devil's lies brings heartache and deprives people of life that is "really living."

6. Why does Jesus give us specific principles for Christian living?

Answer: Because they:

- A. Are for our own good always (Deuteronomy 6:24). As good parents teach good principles to their children, so Jesus teaches good principles to His children.
- B. Set for us a safeguard from sin (Psalm 119:11). Jesus' principles protect us from entering the danger zones of Satan and sin.
- C. Show us how to follow in Christ's footsteps (1 Peter 2:21).
- D. Bring us true happiness (John 13:17).
- E. Give us an opportunity to express our love for Him (John 15:10).
- F. Help us be the right example to others (1 Corinthians 10:31-33; Matthew 5:16).

Jesus' Bible principles for Christian living protect us from Satan's danger zones.

7. According to Jesus, how should Christians relate to the evil of the world and to worldliness?

Answer: His commands and counsel are clear and specific:

- A. Don't love the world or the things of the world. The things of the world that are not of God are: (1) the lust of the flesh, (2) the lust of the eyes, and (3) the pride of life (1 John 2:16). All sin falls into one or more of these three categories. Satan uses these three avenues to lure us into love of the world. When I begin to love the world, I become an enemy of God (1 John 2:15, 16; James 4:4).
- B. I must keep myself unspotted from the world (James 1:27).

When I love the things of the world, I become God's enemy.

8. What urgent warning does God give us regarding the world?

Answer: Jesus warns Christians, "Do not be conformed to this world" (Romans 12:2). The devil is not neutral. He presses every Christian constantly. Through Jesus (Philippians 4:13), I must firmly resist the devil's suggestions, and he will flee from me (James 4:7). The minute I permit the "squeezing" of any other factor to influence my conduct, I imperceptibly begin slipping into apostasy. Christian behavior is not to be decided by the feelings and conduct of the majority, but by Jesus' words from Scripture.

A Christian must firmly resist the things of the world, or he will be led astray by Satan.

9. Why do we need to guard our thoughts?

"As he thinks in his heart, so is he" (Proverbs 23:7).

Answer: We must guard our thoughts, because thoughts dictate behavior. God wants to help us bring "every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ" (2 Corinthians 10:5). But Satan desperately wants to bring "the world" into our thoughts. He can do this only through our five senses—especially sight and hearing. He presses his sights and sounds upon us all and, unless we consistently refuse to look at or listen to what he offers, he will direct us into the broad way that leads to destruction. The Bible is clear. We do become like the things we repeatedly see and hear (2 Corinthians 3:18).

We must carefully guard our thoughts, because thoughts become actions.

10. What are some principles for Christian living?

“Whatever things are true, whatever things are noble, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report, if there is any virtue and if there is anything praiseworthy—meditate on these things” (Philippians 4:8).

Answer: Christians must separate themselves from all things that are not true, honest, just, pure, lovely, and of good report. They will avoid:

- A. Dishonesty of every kind—cheating, lying, stealing, being unfair, intent to deceive, slander, and betrayal.
- B. Impurity of every kind. This includes fornication, adultery, incest, homosexuality, perversion of all types, pornography, profanity, filthy conversation, off-color jokes, social dancing, degenerate songs or music, and most of what is shown on television and in movie theaters.
- C. Places where we would never invite Jesus to accompany us, such as nightclubs, taverns, gambling casinos, racetracks, etc.

Let’s take a few minutes to enlarge upon the dangers of popular music, dancing, television, videos, and the theater.

Music and Song

Many types of secular music (rap, country, pop, rock, heavy metal, adult contemporary, and dance music) have been largely captured by Satan. The lyrics often glorify vice and destroy a desire for spiritual matters. Researchers have discovered some interesting things regarding the power of music: (1) It enters the brain through the emotions, thus bypassing reasoning powers. (2) It affects every function of the body. (3) It can alter pulse, breath rates, and reflexes without the person realizing it. (4) Syncopated dance rhythms alter moods and create a mild hypnosis in the listener.

Even without lyrics, the music itself has power to debase a person’s feelings, desires, and thoughts. Secular rock musicians openly admit this. Rolling Stones leader Mick Jagger said: “You can feel the adrenaline going through your body. It’s sort of sexual.”¹ John Oates of Hall and Oates stated that “Rock ‘n’ Roll is 99% sex.”² Would such music please Jesus? Converted pagans from overseas tell us that our modern secular band music is the same kind they used in witchcraft and devil worship! Ask yourself: “If Jesus came to visit me, what music would I feel comfortable asking Him to listen to with me?” Any music you are not sure of should be abandoned. (For an in-depth analysis of decadent, secular music, we recommend Drums, Rock and Worship by Karl Tsatalbasidis, which can be purchased from Amazing Facts.) When we fall in love with Jesus, He changes our musical desires. “He hath put a new song in my mouth, even praise unto our God: many shall see it, and fear, and shall trust in the Lord.” Psalm 40:3. God has provided for His people plenty of good music that inspires, refreshes, elevates, and strengthens the Christian experience. Those who accept the devil’s degrading music as a substitute are missing one of life’s choicest blessings.

Christians must avoid any music that erodes the desire for godly living.

Dancing

Dancing inevitably leads away from Jesus and spirituality. When the Israelites danced around the golden calf, they forgot God (Exodus 32:17-25). When the daughter of wicked Herodias danced before King Herod, John the Baptist was beheaded (Matthew 14:2-12). Notice these shocking statistics: A Catholic priest in New York said that three-fourths of the girls who have confessed adultery to him put the blame on dancing. Other priests have said that three-fourths is too low; they estimate nine-tenths. Remember, if Christ can participate in an activity with you, you are safe. If not, stay away from it.

TV, Videos, and the Theater

Do the things you watch on television and videos or in the theater appeal to your lower or to your higher nature? Do they lead you into a greater love for Jesus, or for the world? Do they glorify Jesus, or satanic vices? In our day even secularists and non-Christians are speaking out against many of the TV and film productions. Satan has captured the eyes and ears of billions and, as a result, is rapidly turning the world into a cesspool of immorality, crime, terror, and hopelessness. One study said that without TV “there would be 10,000 fewer murders per year in the United States, 70,000 fewer rapes, and 700,000 fewer assaults.”³ Jesus, who loves you, asks you to take your eyes off Satan’s thought-controllers and put them on Him. He says, “Look unto me, and be ye saved.” Isaiah 45:22.

- ¹ Newsweek, “Mick Jagger and the Future of Rock,” Jan. 4, 1971, p. 47.
- ² Circus magazine, Jan. 31, 1976, p. 39.
- ³ Newsweek, “Violence, Reel to Reel,” Dec. 11, 1995, p. 47.

Dancing always leads away from Jesus and spirituality.

11. What clear-cut list does Jesus give us that we could use as a guide for watching television?

“Now the works of the flesh are evident, which are: adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lewdness, idolatry, sorcery, hatred, contentions, jealousies, outbursts of wrath, selfish ambitions, dissensions, heresies, envy, murders, drunkenness, revelries, and the like; of which I tell you beforehand, just as I also told you in time past, that those who practice such things will not inherit the kingdom of God” (Galatians 5:19-21).

Answer: Scripture is too clear to misunderstand. If a family should ban all TV programs that exhibit or condone any of the above sins, there would be very little to watch. If Jesus came to visit you, what TV shows would you feel comfortable asking Him to view with you? All other shows are probably unfit for Christian viewing.

A safe guideline for TV viewing is to ask, “Would I feel comfortable inviting Jesus to watch the program with me?”

12. In this day of determined, independent thinking, many feel totally capable of making spiritual decisions without input from anyone, including Jesus. What does Jesus say about such people?

My choice of TV programs and, in fact, all of my conduct must be guided by the words of Scripture, and not by my own feelings.

Answer: Listen to Jesus’ unequivocal statements: “You shall not at all do as we are doing here today—every man doing whatever is right in his own eyes” (Deuteronomy 12:8). “There is a way that seems right to a man, but its end is the way of death” (Proverbs 16:25). “The way of a fool is right in his own eyes, but he who heeds counsel is wise” (Proverbs 12:15). “He who trusts in his own heart [mind] is a fool!” (Proverbs 28:26).

13. What solemn warnings does Jesus give us about the example and influence of our lives?

“Whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in Me to sin, it would be better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck, and he were drowned in the depth of the sea” (Matthew 18:6). Let no man “put a stumbling block or a cause to fall in our brother’s way” (Romans 14:13). “None of us lives to himself” (Romans 14:7).

Answer: We all expect leaders, people of influence, famed athletes, and other widely known figures to set a good example and use their influence wisely—to pay a so-called “debt to society.” But in today’s world, we are often disillusioned at the repugnant and irresponsible actions of prominent individuals. Jesus clearly states in Romans 1:14 that Christians, who represent Him and His kingdom, do indeed owe something to others. And He solemnly warns that Christians who disregard their influence and example, and thereby lead people astray, will not enter His kingdom.

14. What are Jesus’ principles of conduct regarding clothing and jewelry?

Answer:

A. Dress modestly. See 1 Timothy 2:9.

Remember that the world is brought into our lives through the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life (1 John 2:16). Immodest dress involves all three and is off-limits for a Christian.

B. Lay ornaments and jewelry aside. “Pride of life” is the big problem here. Jesus’ followers should look different. Their appearance witnesses and sends light to others (Matthew 5:16).

Jewelry draws attention to and exalts self. In the Bible, it is a symbol of backsliding and apostasy. When Jacob and his family rededicated their lives to the Lord, they buried their jewelry in the earth (Genesis 35:1, 2, 4).

When the Israelites were about to enter the promised land, the Lord commanded them to remove their ornaments (Exodus 33:5, 6). In Isaiah chapter 3, God clearly says that in wearing jewelry (bracelets, rings, earrings, etc. as listed in verses 19-23), His people were sinning (verse 9). In Hosea 2:13, the Lord says that when Israel forsook Him, they began to wear jewelry. In 1 Timothy 2:9 and 1 Peter 3:3, Paul and Peter both inform us that God’s people will not adorn themselves with gold, pearls, and costly array. Please notice that Peter and Paul did speak of the ornaments God wants His people to wear: “A meek and quiet spirit” (1 Peter 3:4) and “good works” (1 Timothy 2:10). Jesus sums it up by symbolizing His true church in Revelation 12:1 as a pure woman clothed with the sun (Jesus’ brightness and righteousness) and the apostate church as a harlot bedecked with gold, precious stones, and pearls (Revelation 17:3, 4). God asks His people to separate from Babylon (Revelation 18:2-4) and all it stands for—including the jewels that draw attention to self—and instead clothe themselves with the righteousness of Jesus. When we fall in love with Jesus, it is a sheer joy and pleasure to live His lifestyle.

(continued on next page)

15. How do conduct and obedience relate to salvation?

Answer: Obedience and Christian conduct are the proof, or evidence, that I have been saved by Jesus Christ (James 2:20-26). The fact of the matter is that unless one’s lifestyle changes after conversion, the conversion most likely was not genuine. A converted person will find his greatest joy in discovering Jesus’ will in everything and in joyously following where He leads.

Anything that lessens my love for spiritual things becomes an idol.

Beware of Idolatry

The first epistle of John talks of Christian conduct. At its close (1 John 5:21), Jesus warns us through His servant John to keep ourselves from idols. The Master is referring to anything that interferes with or lessens my love for Him—such as music, fashion, possessions, adornment, evil forms of entertainment, etc. The natural fruit, or result, of a true conversion is to follow Jesus happily and adopt His lifestyle.

16. Should we expect everyone to look with favor upon the Christian lifestyle?

Answer: No. Jesus said that the things of God are foolishness to the natural man because they are not spiritually discerned (1 Corinthians 2:14). When Jesus refers to conduct, He is laying down principles for those who are seeking to be led by His Spirit. His people will be grateful and will joyously follow His counsel. Others may not understand or approve.

People who have not fully given themselves to Jesus will never understand a Christian’s lifestyle, and we should not expect them to.

17. How would a person who rejects Jesus’ standards for Christian conduct view heaven?

Answer: Such a person would be miserable in heaven. He would complain that there were no nightclubs, no liquor, no pornographic material, no prostitutes, no sensual music, no lewd books, no profanity, and no gambling. Heaven would be “hell” for those who have not formed a true love relationship with Jesus. This is why Christian standards make no sense to them (2 Corinthians 6:14-17).

A person who rejects Jesus’ lifestyle would be miserable in heaven.

18. How can I adopt and follow these Bible guidelines without appearing pharisaical, judgmental, or legalistic?

Answer: Everything we do should be with one thought in mind: to express love and esteem for Jesus (1 John 3:22). When Jesus is lifted up and shown to people (John 12:32), they will be drawn to Him. Our one question should always be, “Will this honor Jesus? Would I listen to this, sing this, do this, watch this, drink this, buy this, read this, say this, or go there if Jesus were here, in person, with me?” Jesus is with you and me (Matthew 28:20), and He sees everything we do. I must sense Jesus’ presence in every facet and activity of life. When I consciously spend time with Him, I become like Him (2 Corinthians 3:18). Then when people are with me, they will respond as they did to the disciples of old: “They marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus.” (Acts 4:13). Christians who live like that will never become pharisaical, judgmental, or legalistic. In Old Testament days, God’s people were in almost constant apostasy because they chose to live as their heathen neighbors rather than follow the distinctive lifestyle God outlined for them (Deuteronomy 31:16; Judges 2:17; 1 Chronicles 5:25; Ezekiel 23:30). It is true yet today. No one can serve two masters (Matthew 6:24). Those who cling to the world and its lifestyle will be slowly molded by Satan to adopt his feelings and desires and, thus, be programmed to be lost. Those who follow Jesus’ principles for Christian conduct will be changed into His image and prepared for heaven. There is no middle ground.

19. Do you want to love Christ so much that to follow His principles for Christian living will be a joy and delight?

Your Answer: _____

YOUR THOUGHT QUESTIONS ANSWERED

1 I know what God would have me to do, but I just don't feel that I'm ready to begin doing it. What do you suggest?

ANSWER: Begin doing it at once! Never depend on feelings. God guides through the words of Scripture (Isaiah 8:20). Feelings often lead astray. The Jewish leaders felt they should crucify Jesus, but they were wrong. Many will feel saved at Jesus' second advent, but they will, instead, be lost (Matthew 7:21-23). The devil influences feelings. If I depend on my feelings, he will lead me to destruction.

2 I'm troubled. I want very much to do a certain thing. I realize, however, that because of its appearance, some might feel I am doing evil. What should I do?

ANSWER: The Bible is clear. It says, "Abstain from every form of evil" (1 Thessalonians 5:22). And the apostle Paul said that if his eating of flesh foods offended somebody, he'd never touch those foods again (1 Corinthians 8:13). He also said that if he ignored the offended person's feelings and continued eating flesh foods, he would be sinning.

3 It seems to me that churches list too many things I must do and too many things I must not do. It drives me up the wall. Isn't following Jesus what really matters?

ANSWER: Yes, following Jesus is what matters. However, following Jesus means one thing to one person and something quite different to another. The only safe way to know what following Jesus means is to discover what Jesus says in the Bible on any question regarding right doing. Those who lovingly follow Jesus' commands will one day soon enter His kingdom (Revelation 22:14). Those who follow man-made rules will go astray and could be led away from His kingdom (Matthew 15:3-9).

4 A few of God's requirements seem unreasonable and unnecessary to me. I can't understand why they are important. What do you suggest?

ANSWER: Children often feel that some of their parents' requirements (e.g. "Don't play in the street") are unreasonable. But in later years, the child will thank the parents for the requirement. We are "children" in dealing with God, because

His thoughts and actions are as high above ours as the heavens are above the earth (Isaiah 55:8, 9). We need to trust our loving heavenly Father in the few areas we may not understand and stop "playing in the street," if He so requires. He will never withhold anything good from us (Psalm 84:11). When I am truly in love with Jesus, I will give Him the benefit of the doubt and do His will even if I do not always understand why. The new birth is the key. The Bible says when I am truly born again, overcoming the world will not be a problem because a converted person will have the faith and trust to happily follow Jesus in everything (1 John 5:4). Refusing to follow Him because I am not clear on His reasons displays a lack of trust in my Saviour.

5 Will I benefit from Jesus' loving principles, laws, and commands?

ANSWER: Absolutely! Every principle, rule, law, or command of Jesus provides unbelievably outstanding blessings. The biggest lottery win in history pales into insignificance when compared to God's rich blessings to His obedient children. Here are just a few benefits that come from following Jesus' rules:

1. Jesus as a personal friend.
2. Jesus as a partner in business.
3. Freedom from guilt.
4. Peace of mind.
5. Freedom from fear.
6. Indescribable happiness.
7. Longer life.
8. Assurance of a home in heaven.
9. Better health.
10. No hangers.

Talk about riches! The true Christian receives benefits from his heavenly Father that even the richest people on earth can never purchase.

6 In regard to standards and lifestyle, do I have a responsibility to lecture other people about them?

ANSWER: The best rule for us to follow is to be concerned about our own lifestyle. "Examine yourselves," the Bible says in 2 Corinthians 13:5. When our lifestyle is as it should be, our example serves as a silent witness and we don't need to lecture anyone. Of course, parents do have a special responsibility to help their children understand how to follow Jesus.

7 What are the greatest dangers for Christians today?

ANSWER: Among the greatest dangers are divided loyalties. Many Christians have two loves that divide the heart: love for Jesus, and love for the world and its sinful practices and pleasures. Too many, it seems, wish to see how closely they can follow the world and still be considered Christians. It won't work. Jesus clearly warned that no one "can serve two masters" (Matthew 6:24).

8 But isn't it legalism to follow these Christian rules of conduct?

ANSWER: Not unless a person is doing it in order to be saved. Salvation comes only as a miraculous, free gift from Jesus. Salvation by works (or conduct) is no salvation at all. However, following Jesus' standards of conduct because I have been saved and love Him is never legalism.

9 Are Christian standards involved with Jesus' command to let our lights shine?

ANSWER: Assuredly! Jesus says a true Christian is a light (Matthew 5:14). He also said, "Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father in heaven" (Matthew 5:16). You don't hear a light; you see it. People will see a Christian's light shine by his conduct, dress, diet, conversation, attitude, sympathy, purity, kindness, and honesty (Jesus' standards). They will inquire about his lifestyle and, thus, often be led to Christ.

10 Aren't Christian standards cultural? Shouldn't they change with the times?

ANSWER: Customs may change, but Bible standards endure. "The word of our God shall stand for ever." Isaiah 40:8. The church must lead, not follow. It must not be programmed by culture, humanism, or the trends of the day. We are not to bring the church down to erring human standards, but rather, up to Jesus' standards. When a church lives, speaks, looks, and behaves like the world, who would ever go to it for help? Jesus sends a clarion call to His people and His church, saying, "Come out from among them and be separate. ... Do not touch what is unclean, and I will receive you" (2 Corinthians 6:17). Jesus' church is not to imitate the world, but rather to repudiate it. The "world" has ravaged billions. The church must not join in its mayhem. The church must stand tall and with a gracious but firm voice call people to listen to Jesus and come up to His standards. When a hearer falls in love with Jesus and asks Him to control his life, the Saviour will work the miracles needed to change him and safely escort him to God's eternal kingdom. There is no other way to heaven.

11 Surely not all dancing is evil. Didn't David dance before the Lord?

ANSWER: True, not all dancing is evil. David leaped and danced before the Lord as an expression of praise for His blessings (2 Samuel 6:14-16). Also, he was dancing by himself. David's dance was similar to that of the lame man who leaped for joy after being healed by Jesus (Acts 3:8-10). Such dancing, or leaping, is recommended by Jesus to those who are being persecuted (Luke 6:22, 23). Dancing with those of the opposite sex (which leads to immorality and broken homes) and lewd dancing (such as strippers) are the kinds condemned by the Bible.

12 What does the Bible say about people condemning and judging each other?

ANSWER: "Judge not, that you be not judged. For with what judgment you judge, you will be judged" (Matthew 7:1, 2). "Therefore you are inexcusable, O man, whoever you are who judge, for in whatever you judge another you condemn yourself; for you who judge practice the same things" (Romans 2:1). How could this be clearer? There is no excuse or justification for my judging anyone other than myself. Jesus is the Judge (John 5:22). When I pass judgment on others, I usurp Christ's position as judge and become a miniature antichrist (1 John 2:18)—a solemn thought, indeed!

SUMMARY SHEET

Please read the Study Guide before completing this Summary Sheet. All answers to the questions below can be found in the Study Guide. Place a check in the box by the correct answer. Numbers in parentheses (1) indicate the number of correct answers.

- Jesus' loving principles for conduct become a pleasure to follow when I fall in love with Him. (1)
 - Yes.
 - No.
- Following Jesus' standards of conduct because I have been saved and love Him is legalism. (1)
 - Yes.
 - No.
- The real author of the Bible is Jesus. (1)
 - Yes.
 - No.
- "Love not the world" means that we shouldn't love (1)
 - Our country.
 - The world as our planet.
 - The sinful, wicked, and ungodly ways and things of this world.
- Why does Jesus give us specific commands, laws, and rules? (5)
 - For our good always.
 - So we will know how to set a good example for others.
 - To take away our freedom.
 - So we can follow in Christ's footsteps.
 - To safeguard us from sin.
 - To keep us under His thumb.
 - To bring us true happiness.
- Two good rules for deciding what is proper Christian conduct are as follows: (2)
 - Discover what the Bible says.
 - Watch to see what church members do.
 - Consult a ouija board.
 - Go by your feelings.
 - Ask yourself what Jesus would do.
- Satan has access to us only through our five senses. (1)
 - Yes.
 - No.
- For which facets of Christian conduct listed below does Jesus provide some specific counsel and guidelines? (5)
 - How we dress.
 - Healthful living.
 - Ornaminting the body.
 - Olympic skiing.
 - Eating and drinking.
 - Flying a plane.
 - Buying a house.
 - Example and influence.
- How do conduct and obedience relate to salvation? (1)
 - We are saved by our conduct and obedience.
 - A saved person can ignore conduct and obedience and still be ready for heaven.
 - Conduct and obedience are the evidence that one has been converted, or born again.
- If I refuse to forsake something Jesus asks me to forsake—such as jewelry, rock music, or watching evil TV shows—God considers that unforsaken thing an idol. (1)
 - Yes.
 - No.
- A Christian life is like a good marriage in that success comes when our aim is to please the one we love. (1)
 - Yes.
 - No.
- Satan leads people into sin by which three of the avenues listed below? (3)
 - Hiding their Bibles from them.
 - Pride of life.
 - Writing messages in the sky.
 - Lust of the flesh.
 - Lust of the eyes.
- Guarding our thoughts is crucial, because thoughts become actions. (1)
 - Yes.
 - No.

14. Some promised benefits of faithfully following Jesus are as follows: (7)

- You will know how to prophesy.
- You will live a longer life.
- You will enjoy indescribable happiness.
- You will have better health.
- Your hair will not turn gray.
- You will be a millionaire.
- You will be assured of a home in heaven.
- You will have freedom from fear.
- You will have Jesus as a personal friend.
- You will enjoy peace of mind.

15. If my conduct offends a Christian brother, what should I do? (1)

- Ignore it. No one can please everybody.
- Fight it out, one to one.
- Try to get the brother disfellowshipped.

- Tell everybody so church members can choose sides.
- Stop doing the offending thing.

16. What does Jesus call a person who is determined to have his own way rather than listen to Bible counsel? (1)

- An independent thinker.
- A wise person.
- A fool.

17. A person who rejects Jesus' standards for Christian living would (1)

- Suddenly begin to love spiritual things when he gets to heaven.
- Be repentant for his hardness of heart after a few days in the holy city.
- Be miserable in heaven.

18. I want to love Christ so much that to follow His principles for Christian living will be a joy and delight.

- Yes.
- No.

Study Guide 26 PLEASE BE SURE TO ANSWER THE QUESTIONS ON BOTH SIDES. Printed in USA

To receive your next free "Amazing Facts Study Guide," include your name and address on the lines below. Then cut along the dotted line, fold, insert into an envelope, and mail to the address below.

Name _____

Register here to receive your next FREE Study Guide.

Address _____

City, State, ZIP _____

PLEASE PRINT CLEARLY.

Available only in Canada, the United States, and its territories.

Send to:

PO BOX 909
ROSEVILLE CA 95678-0909

26